Ohio Gourd Show and Festival Vendor Regulations:

- Artists/crafters will be considered as long as gourds are incorporated into their work at a minimum of 50% of their inventory. Non-gourd artists/crafters may be accepted when it is in the best interest of OGS and visitors to the Ohio Gourd Show as determined by the Show Committee. Description of items to be sold:

- Vendors may sell items that are useful for growing, crafting, education, culture, history, and enjoyment of gourds, including - but not limited to – tools, books, stains/dyes, art/crafts supplies, dried flowers/materials and decorative items suitable for embellishing, displaying, enhancing gourds.
- Vendors of fresh and dried gourds must be the growers.
- All vendors are strongly encouraged to exhibit eight (8) entries into the gourd competition to be displayed throughout the Show. Refer to website (ohiogourdsociety.com) for competitive entry categories and descriptions.
- Food vendors must directly contact the Delaware County Fairgrounds office. (740) 362-3851.
- Vendors must be available for sales throughout the Show hours. Early departure is prohibited and may impact invitation to future shows.
- Vendors are asked to share the details on their personal and business social media to help advertise the Show.
